NIH Supply Center is Open for Business

After an interruption in distribution services yesterday (4/15/2020), caused by extensive flooding at the Gaithersburg Distribution Center (GDC), the NIH Supply Center is back up and operational today, providing Supplies for the NIH Community. Distribution services from our warehouse resumed this morning.

The NIH Supply Center team continues to work diligently to support our NIH Community in this challenging times of the coronavirus COVID 19.

Please contact our Customer Service Team at 301-496-3395 or NIHSC-customerservice@od.nih.gov if you have any questions.
